Five Injured In Two Collisions On Tahoe Road

Truckee Woman Expected Home From Hospital Today

Five people were injured in two separate accidents within a short distance of one another on the Tahoe-Truckee highway Sunday and all but one required hospitalization.

The first of the two accidents occurred Sunday morning at 1:30 o'clock when a car driven north by Oscar Quam, Truckee shoe store operator, went out of control and overturned at the half-way bridge over the Truckee River. Mrs. Quam had deep lacerations on her legs and suffered from shock.

The driver escaped with minor injuries to his head.

Both were taken to Reno by the Truckee ambulance and Mrs. Quam was hospitalized, Quam returning that morning to his home here. His wife is expected home today.

State Patrolman William Gautsche said indications were that the driver may have fallen asleep momentarily. The car was virtually demolished.

Headon Crash

At 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon cars driven by Earl Covey, Grass Valley automobile dealer, and Robert Taylor, 66, Rochester, New York, collided headon at Deer Park a short distance south of the Quam mishap.

Mr. and Mrs. Covey who were traveling south on Route 89, were taken to a hospital in Grass Valley by the Truckee ambulance and the Tahoe City ambulance took Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and their daughter, Mrs. Joan Kanwisler, 27, Sacramento, to Reno. None of the injured was reported in critical condition.

Patrolman Gautsche said evidence pointed to the belief that Covey was across the center line when he hit the New York car.

Driver Cited

John A. Mattson, 61, Colfax, was cited for speeding following a collision between his car and one driven by William W. Sterling, 38, Sacramento beauty shop operator, near Hirschdale Saturday afternoon. No one was badly injured.

Sale Of Store To Quam Revealed By Jerry Zunino

Sale of the Truckee Shoe Store by Jerry Zunino to Oscar Quam of Tahoe City was announced this week. Quam took over active management of the store last Saturday and for the time being, Zunino is remaining to assist him.

Sale of the store by Zunino marks the retirement of a Truckee merchant who had been in business here since 1916, when he purchased a small shop where the Donner Theater now stands. Later Zunino moved to a looation on Bridge Street where he remained until 1923, when he returned to his native Italy for a three years' visit.

Returning in 1926, the popular cobbler opened his repair shop and store in its present location in the Masonic Building. With the exception of two years spent in Italy between 1937 and 1939, he has continuously operated in the same location, making his home in the rear of the store.

The new owner is not a new comer to this district, having resided at Tahoe City since 1929, where he has been, with the exception of four years spent in the bay area during the war, employed, for the most part, as building foreman for N. R. Mayfield. Prior to that he worked at Hobart Mills in 1924, so is particularly familiar with the area which he will serve.

Quam, while never before owning a store, worked in shoe shops and stores in Susanville and Berkeley and has a full knowledge of the work he is undertaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Quam and their two children, Dorene and Jerry, both students at the high school here, moved from Tahoe a month ago, after selling their home there, and are now residing on River Street.

Zunino plans to devote his efforts to local property and friends will regret his retirement but will welcome his successor to the main street's industries.

Summit To Vote On Fate Of New District Dec. 18

Supervisors Name Election Board, Sets Precinct Polling Place

The Nevada County board of supervisors last Thursday set Tuesday, December 18, for an election on the question of disincorporation of the Donner Summit Public Utility District.

The action followed presentation of a petition for such an election by several residents of the area.

The board heard a delegation from the Donner Summit area consisting of Otto Frederick and Mrs. Jack Manturano of Norden, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patten and Mrs. Helen McCarty of Soda Springs and Mrs. William Rossi of Sacramento, who has a summer home at Soda Springs.

The delegation inquired concerning a requested election on the subject of dissolving the Summit PUD. This district, formed in 1947, can be dissolved by vote of the electors, with the board of supervisors setting the election date.

The election will be held at Donner Summit Lodge between the hours of 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. On the election board are Charles M. Patten, Fred Pedley, Kirby Schull and Joe Goicoechea. The latter three were among the 14 signers of the petition which brought about the election.

There are about 40 voters in the district, which embraces parts of Placer and Nevada Counties at Donner Summit.

OFFICIAL APPROVAL GIVEN BY BOARD FOR LOCAL BRIDGE

The Nevada County board of supervisors voted unanimously last Thursday to proceed with a contract under which Ted Schwartz of Grass Valley will set up a two-lane steel girder bridge at Truckee for $41,700.

Action on the matter had been postponed from a sepcial meeting October 29 because of the absence of Supervisor Frank J. Rowe. All five members were present and Rowe concurred in the plan on November 1.

Schwartz said the bridge, already fabricated at the Moore Dry Dock Company plant at San Francisco, will be erected within 40 working days.

CHRISTMAS CLUB TO ISSUE $14,200 TO AREA FOLKS

The sum of $14,200 will be funneled into Truckee's Christmas shopping channels as the result of the distribution of the Bank of America's Christmas Club fund checks on November 15, R. A. Scott, manager of the Truckee branch announced this week.

Scott said that the end-of-the-year checks are being sent out two weeks earlier than in previous years, in order to beat seasonal mail and shopping rushes. Bank of America will distribute 280,000 checks totalling $27,000,000 to club members throughout California this year, according to the branch manager. It is a new record for savings programs of this kind.

Christmas checks receive a warm welcome from the club members who, as a result, are better able to meet year-end financial obligations and to help Santa Claus fill the children's Yuletide stockings, Scott said. He adds that enrollments for the 1952 Christmas Club are now being accepted at the bank.

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

November 11 marks the 33rd anniversary of Armistice Day—a day which most people today never saw and others remember more or less dimly. The original hope which Armistice Day gave the world—that World War I was the last—has long since vanished in the cauldron of World War II and various other conflicts. Yet it is not accurate to say that the hope of lasting peace is dead. It will never die. At least we are more aware today of the dangers ahead and our actions and outlook are more realistic than they were in those years between the end of the one war and the start of the next. We are sometimes inclined to believe that World War I was, in the final analysis, a futile sacrifice. On that basis the same thing might be said of World War II. To be sure, in looking back we can see more clearly what might have been done toward heading off those conflicts, but once the final crises came there was nothing else we could do honorably but take up the fight. The world has paid an awful price for its derelictions toward justice and decency but through it all some progress is being made for a better world. We are not as optimistic now as we were on November 11, 1918, but the chances of peace may be actually better.

New Book Gives Space To History Ot Truckee Area

by DOUG BARRETT

Truckee and its unique history has again scored in the literature of Americana and scored strong.

The Sierra Sun and Truckee Republican has received an advance copy of "California Called Them" by Robert O'Brien, San Francisco Chronicle columnist, and Antonio Sotomayor, whose bold line drawings pepper the very readable volume.

From Page 91 of the book, being published by McGraw-Hill Book Company of New York, through Page 128, you have Truckee all by itself.

The chapter is headed with a recognizable caricature of a main street scene around Loynd's Drug store, renamed with artistic license, Donner Drugs. Three other Sotomayor drawings break the novel style of the Chronicle columnist as he rambles through the Donner Party, the coming of the Central Pacific, the 601 vigilantes, the fires and on into the Truckee of today, with a snatch or two at Donner Summit and its ski centers.

Beside scanning the history of our town and its surrounding area, O'Brien goes into character analysis for the community.

He says, "For all its newness and brashness, it was from the beginning an illegitimate child, the product of the self-interest of the Comstock Lode and the Central (later the Southern) Pacific. To both it was useful, yet neither cared formally to acknowledge it. And to both its physical position seemed in peculiar harmony with its social standing: it was, and always would be, on the wrong side of the tracks . . . Thus shunned and disowned by both its parents, Truckee went its own independent way."

At least three editors of the Truckee Republican figure strongly in the account. First was D. B. Frink, who was killed in a case of mistaken identity during an excursion of the 601 vigilantes. Then, O'Brien dwells at length upon C. F. McGlashen and his writing of the History of the Donner Party, which first appeared as a serial in this newspaper in 1878.

Then the better part of two pages is devoted to conversational quotes from the incumbent editor and publisher of the Sierra Sun, the modern version of the Truckee Republican.

Beside the section on the Truckee and Donner area, O'Brien has similarly treated Coloma, Angels Camp, Murphys and Columbia in the Mother Lode; Shasta, Yreka and The Mountain in the Shasta Country.

"California Called Them" is being published by McGraw-Hill as of November 12 and from a standpoint of entertaining readability is well worth the asking price of $4.

RFC HEAVY INVESTOR IN DEFUNCT CASINO NEAR TAHOE'S SHORE

The Tahoe Biltmore hotel at Crystal Bay, in which many lost money two years ago, is up for sale by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, which indicates the government also had cash wrapped up there.

The extravagant establishment closed after bankruptcy proceedings in 1949, having survived a brief two seasons.

The Tahoe Biltmore was conceived and construction begun by a group of southern California businessmen but they went bankrupt before construction was completed. The property lay partially-finished for a time until another California group took over, completed construction and opened the hotel as one of the most lavish establishments in the Lake Tahoe area.

Within two short years it became known as a "white elephant" at the lake. Following bankruptcy proceedings, the fixtures were sold by the Nevada board of trade to satisfy creditors of the hotel.

However, a first deed of trust was held on the property by the Capitol National Bank of California, later taken over by the Anglo-California Bank, and the latter instituted court proceedings to reclaim the property. The RFC, apparently a partner in the deed of trust, has now advertised the property for sale.

It is reported the tax-supported federal agency had $350,000 invested in the elaborate hostelry and gambling casino. Recently the RFC announced the sale of the defunct rattlesnake farm near Clofax.

TAX RETURNS DO NOT INDICATE STATE'S LIQUOR CONSUMPTION

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Although liquor taxes are down 25 per cent from a year ago, this doesn't mean that Californians are drinking less.

This statement was made by officials of the state board of equalization, who said they collected $1,507,302 in Ssptember for October sales, 25 per cent under the same month a year ago.

Board officials explained it this way: a year ago, retailers stocked up heavy on liquor in anticipation of a shortage which never occurred.

Taxes are collected on the basis of deliveries from wholesalers to retailers. Consequently, the retailers, with heavy stocks, have been using them up and buying smaller amounts of whiskies, gins, etc.

But actual consumption is not affected, the board believes, as the September 1950 tax collections were abnormally high.

TAHOE CULVERT

The California highway commission has allocated $13,000 to be spent in installing a culvert in Madden Creek on State Sign Route 89 near Tahoe Pines.

THE MODELS ARE FROM THE LIZABETH PETERSEN MODELLING SCHOOL

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

Attention all mountaineers! Our good neighbor, Lola Schull, can be reached at the Ball Clinic, Excelsior Springs, Missouri, where she is bedridden as she fights the crippling disease known as arthritis. Lola, a good civic leader in our area, is missed and the good thoughts of the whole community are with her. Meanwhile, Papa Kirby keeps the homefires burning during Lola's absence and watches over their three little boys, Kit, Jim and Rick. Having returned from a hospital siege ourselves recently we know the value of a cheering letter and a colorful get well card. So write Lola a line, won't you?

Went down the hill last Saturday night to join the funsters at Donner Lake Lodge, where Hap and Donna Warnke are really putting over a good Saturday night show, what with an orchestra and a super-buffet. Found we weren't the only mountaineers with the idea, for we met all of our neighbors.

The versatile Nordstroms, Ernie and Margot, were hosts last Friday evening to friends, the occasion being Ernie's birthdate. We seldom mention an age in giving a birthday mention but in this case we have to make an exception, for Ernie's drink of the evening was a baby's bottle filled with milk. "Life begins at 40," says Margon, "so we'll start him off right . . . with his bottle."

Jeannie and Elmo Moriano celebrate the removing of Jeannie's plaster cast by taking a trip to San Francisco to visit the senior Morianos. New reservation clerk, mountaineer Eleanor Johanson, takes over shortly to answer the slew of reservation requests that are already overflowing a basket on the desk. Haven't checked with other resorts on advance winter business but if Beacon Hill is a criterion, we predict a good winter season, come snow time.

Everything is in readiness for the first mountain fashion show at Soda Springs Hotel come this Saturday! Remember, two shows: one a cocktail show at 5 p.m., the other an evening show at 8 o'clock. Plenty of canapes and fixings. Having seen some of the models, we predict a great many observers will be of the masculine sex, for they're really sumptious. While the gals in the area can look forward to the very latest in ski togs which, we understand, are light, warm and colorful. SSH owner Brant Chaplin is staggered with the advance publicity the snow tog show seems to be acculmulating. We mountain folk who can't get away to the city to see advance styles in modern clothes look forward to the showing of Snow Fantasies. However, Brant did not anticipate that city folk might like to view the latest in snow sport duds and equipment in their natural locale Doris Wood, a Richmondite but a Cisco cabineer for the past several years, surprised us by stopping in last Sunday and stating that she was going to be part of the show a model no less! Seems like most of models (and Doris is a standard, they're strictly on the gorgeous side) come from Richmond and Berkeley, being enrolled in the Lizbeth Peterson Charm Center There's a Virginia Marzetta, a Rega Claytor, a Bette Arno, a Marlene DuVall, an Allen Arno and a couple of tots too. The guard of honor for these snow tog queens will be strictly in order, being members of the American Ski Patrol. We mention again, November 10, first show at 5 p.m., second at 8 p.m. Broadcasting system, background music, dias . . . strictly to be done up in a big city bundle.

Just came back from an inspection of the mountain's newest lodge, that west of us belonging to Bob Mori and Sig Secco, a real old time mountaineer (though not in years, Mori). Not only is the exterior of this place a distinct attraction in its French chalet lines but the interior, even in its embryonic state, shows careful thought and beautiful workmanship. Believe that this place was orginially built around its marvelous mauve stone fireplace . . . one of the most beautiful fireplaces we've seen in the entire area. Gals' dorms up stairs with separate outside entrance. Boys' doms on the lower floor with separate outside entrance. The lobby will be entrancing and we understand that a cocktail bar will grace the premises. Capacity, 80. The dining room is the room to the west of the building and its large plate glass windows will make the room a light and sunny place in which to dine. The fellows are still thinking up a name for the place and if you have any bright ideas for a chalet type building set in the middle of the world's greatest snow sport area, send your idea to Bob Mori Soda Springs, Calif.

After our tour, we went down to inspect the new paint job at Donner Summit Lodge and the waterfall in the lower lobby, recently installed This lovely place is getting a face lifting job and the bar (Fireside Room) will emerge from its former shadows into the daylight with new lighting and light colored walls. Red upholstery will grace the corner lounges and already the new color set up makes the room look twice its size. The bar is temporarily closed while this work goes on but Bud Horak expects to have it open within a few days. The waterfall that we mentioned is really going to be something, too Bud turned on the fall whilst we admired and colored lights played thereon will lend their reflection to trout which will frolic in the pool. Ferns and mountain vegetation will be skillfully planted into the rock receptacles that have been put into the planning.

We see invitations in the mail from Ice Lakes for their regular super duper Thanksgiving dinner . . . Eula Sherritt lets hubby, Jim, know that she is having such a marvelous time visiting her daughter in New York that she is extending her trip until Thanksgiving time . . . Bud Zorich's Ski Shop takes beautiful form and Bud says that its grand opening won't be too far in the future . . . Maria and Jack Patten return from their African safari and immediately take off on a duck hunting trip. So we haven't had time to get a report on Africa as yet. Little words dropped indicate that the kids dropped off in Paris for a few days, had a sojourn in Italy, distinctly did not like Cairo, had a few close calls with wild animals, including a charge by a rhino, and stuff like that. We eagerly await a few hours with them for a bang up story.

The good sun stays out to help Virg and Wanda Misener finish their beautiful new home, most of it being built by these two indefatigables. They keep their fingers crossed and pray that they can move in before the winter snows.

Pat and Jack Woodard of the Donner Ski Ranch announce that there will be two more tows for next winter's skiers; a rope tow to the Beacon for high altitude lovers and a bunny tow on barely a slope for those who like to ski practically on the level. A new folder put out oby the pair announces new dorm accommodations, new complete ski shop and new ski trails.

Orders Briefs Submitted In Lake Property Case

AUBURN— Superior Judge Thomas Maul of El Dorado County ordered the complaint in specific performance brought by B. F. and Jean Callender against W. C. Johnson submitted on briefs after a hearing in Placer County Superior Court.

The plaintiffs contend Johnson leased them a site in 1949 at Lakeside, Lake Tahoe, for $3,000 a year for 10 years with an option to purchase it at a total price of $30,000.

When they exercised their option to purchase, the plaintiffs state, the defendant refused to complete the sale although the plaintiffs had complied with the terms of the agreement.

Near-Record Tahoe Level Assures Irrigators

FALLON— Water storage in Lake Lahontan hit the low point for this year on October 26 at 104,468 acre-feet and since has been gaining daily, according to Watermaster Harry Richards.

The reservoir is getting a flow of about 200 second feet through the Truckee River canal, with 250 second feet going through the power plant. In addition 100 second feet is now flowing down the Carson River into Lahontan.

A heavy flow is insured through the Truckee all winter because of the big storage in Lake Tahoe, which has been this high at this time of the year only seven times in half a century.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

PHONE TAHOE CITY 39W

Tahoe City, Nov. 5

Dear Tahoeites:

The many many friends of the Oscar Quams, who for years resided in Tahoe City but recently moved to Truckee, were shocked to learn of their unfortunate accident early Sunday morning. Friends who visited Mrs. Quam in Washoe Medical Center, Reno Sunday found her recuperating satisfactorily but extremely bruised and sore and still suffering from shock. Their friends in this area wish Mrs. Q. speedy recovery and pray that all may soon be well with them again.

Many Tahoeites motored over to Carson October 31 to witness the big parade headed by Gov. Charles Russell and Clark Gable, celebrating Nevada's Admission Day. Among them were the A. M. Henrys and members of their family, Mrs. Imon Mtchell and son, Cary Hadsell and Harry Meade of Homewood, Leona Sunkel of Tahoma and Mrs. H. Youman of San Francisco, houseguest of the Mitchells. All enjoyed dinner at the Mitchell menage that evening and they were joined later by Al Alberta of Homewood.

Have another card from Mrs. Fern Schlueter of Tahoe Park who is having a wonderful vacation with kin in Nebraska but is beginning to get a wee bit homesick for California.

Two Tahoe residents observed birthdates Tuesday, November 6. They are Mrs. Patti Scott of Tahoe City and Imon Mitchelll of Tahoe Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Starratt of the Bittencourt Tract have added a new bedroom to their home. With baby Ann's arrival, more room was needed.

The Halloween party sponsored by the Tahoe Lake PTA for local youngsters proved highly successful with a wonderful turnout for the evening. So wonderful and ingenious were some of the costumes worn by the youngsters that it was a difficult task for the judges to award the prizes.

More than 150 friends and neighbors attended the gala housewarming at the William Bechdolt's new three bedroom home on Fairway Drive, Tahoe City, Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Bechdolt prepared a veritable feast for their admiring guests. Martin Spitsen, local contractor, was the builder. Many lovely and useful gifts were bestowed on the popular couple, who are the parents of three children.

The efforts of Mrs. Ethel Joslin Vernon, dean of trustees of Poets of the Pacific, have brought honors to Tahoeites recently. Miss Cary Raymond, Mrs. Ann Anderson and Mrs. Eleanor Swanson have submitted poems they have written to Jan Kujawa of San Francisco, secretary of promotion for the Pets aaaaaaattttteeeeen....sm-loe Poets of the Pacific, and have been as artist members. Two other local ladies, Mrs. Tessie Helm and Mrs. Cleo Morgan of Tahoe City, were accepted as associate members, both being artists of distinction. Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. Helm and Mrs. Morgan had several of their pictures hanging in the the AAUW hobby show at Carson City October 31. Mrs. Vernon invites all writers and artists of the western area to contact her if they are interested in joining Poets of the Pacific. Samples of the writer's work must be submitted to Mrs. Vernon at Tahoe City. A writers' club is being organized here following Mrs. Vernon's return from a vacation trip later this month.

Conger's Cafe is closed for six weeks while Shirley and Bill are enjoying a rest and doing a bit of cleaning up around their restaurant and motel. They plan a vacation to southern California a little later on.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott of Tahoe and Piedmont, who are accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Lee Scott of Piedmont on a cross-country vacation motor trip were last heard from in New Orleans. They had just left Florida, where they had spent several weeks. The quartet plan to be home in time for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Yeakel and daughter motored to Tahoe on Saturday from their home near Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertel Anderson of Pineland have laid the foundation of their future three-bedroom home which Anderson, Pineland contractor, will erect on the highway near Pineland Road. The building will be of rustic type and will be winterized for year-round occupancy. They expect to move in early next spring.

Einar Wethal, who was employed by Anderson all summer on construction work, has left for New York where he will board a liner for Oslo, Norway. He has taken his car and will remain all winter. He hopes to return to America next summer.

My best to all, as ever,
Swanee

ADVERTISE WITH $$$ NOT ON THEM WARNS U. S. OFFICERS

The United States Secret Service has received numerous complaints from banking houses that adver tising matter is being pasted to coins of the United States by vari ous types of business establish ments. This practice makes it diffi cult for banks to readily and clear ly identify the coins as to genuine ness and denomination and further makes it extremely difficult for banks to process the coins through counting machines for wrapping and eventual distribution.

The United States Secret Ser vice wishes to warn anyone using this medium of advertising that they are violating a federal law covered by Section 475, Title 18 of the United States Code, which pro vides that "whoever . . . writes prints, or otherwise impresses upon or attaches to any such instrument obligation, or security, or any coin of the United States, any business, or professional card, notice, or ad vertisement, or any notice or ad vertisement whatever, shall be fined not more than $500."

HELICOPTER SERVES UNLIMITED MISSIONS IN COMBAT IN KOREA

Prior to the Korean operations, the helicopter was generally considered an oddity, an infant among the battle-tested fighters, bombers and transport planes. During the interim period following World War II, it was used chiefly for air-sea rescues, reconnaissance and mapping, a limited means of transporting personnel and equipment, crop dusting and various military operational experiments. With the outbreak of the Korean aggression, the helicopter loomed to the fore as one of the most versatile planes in combat. Because of its maneuverability in remote and inaccessible areas it has been used extensively in the evacuation of casualties and rescue of isolated troops as well as the recovery of critical equipment. Thousands of fighting men owe their lives to this type of evacuation. Specially designed equipment produced in limited quantities and vital to the United Nations operations have been retrieved and returned to our forces. Safe shipment of highly essential equipment and supplies is most generally assured.

Its unique size and the low altitude at which it flies makes it a difficult target for the enemy and a very effective forward observer and artillery spotter for ground troops. Field commanders are using it extensively for closer liaison with their tactical positions and troops. The armed services are anticipating many more uses for the aerial curiosity with additional field tests and certain modifications.

AIR AMBULANCE—A Marine helicopter leaves the battle line with a Navy corpsman who was injured in rescuing a Marine from a mine field in Korea.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED—USS Boxer's (CV-21) helicopter lands on the flight deck after an air-sea rescue mission.

Judge Vernon On Leave; Neighbors to Preside

TAHOE CITY— Justice of Peace and Mrs. C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City left Sunday on a three-weeks motor vacation trip. They plan a trip through southern California, continuing on to Texas where they'll remain for a week or so.

During their absence, Cary Raymond of Lake Forest will take care of the judge's office work and all court cases will be heard by Judge Harry Charrison of Kings Beach, who will preside in this township each Monday, and by Judge Fosten Wilson of Truckee, who will hold court here each Thursday.

DRASTIC MEASURES SUGGESTED BY SAFETY CONFEREES

SACRAMENTO —(C. N. S.)— Revivial of speed traps and a law to permit evidence from chemical tests for drunkeness were two of the scores of recommendations that came out of Governor Earl Warren's conference on traffic safety.

The panel on law enforcement made both suggestions, suggesting that laws be enacted to permit the use of scientifically developed electronic or mechanical speed devices for detection of speed violators, and that a section dealing with the admissibility and weight of evidence secured from chemical tests for intoxication be enacted.

From the motor vehicle administration division came the recommendation for an increase in staff to examine the 150,000 to 200,000 who apply for drivers licenses in California each month. This group also recommended enforcement of the law requiring drivers licenses when it heard some million persons in this state are without such permits.

Establishment of a juvenile traffic court for violators under 18 years of age, which would be a part of the court in each county was also recommended. At the same time, recommendation was made for issuance of licenses to minors when necessary for family support.

The legislative division suggested the department of public health and mental hygiene determine the most accurate method of determining intoxication or drug addiction in a violator and recommend legislation that such means be used.

Feasibility of making bartenders service station attendants and parking lot attendants responsible for allowing drunken driving was suggested as a study by the senate interim committee on motor vehicles.

The engineers' section presented one point for concentration during the ensuing year—the elimination of high accident intersections through determination of where they are located and correction.

On public information and support, the section recommended that newspapers of the state be appointed "traffic policemen" by consistently printing the names of traffic offenders as a day to day ritual and print also the penalties on these offenders.

An increase in the speed limit of trucks from 40 to 50 miles per hour was recommended by the commercial vehicle division, on the theory that the present speed of 40 miles, if trucks observe the law, is unrealistic, as it creates a hazardous condition on the highways.

General recommendations were made for raising the level of police and highway patrol enforcement of traffic laws and for more education in traffic matters. The department of motor vehicles was used to supply a drivers manual at the time motor vehicle licenses are issued.

FORMER APPRENTICE SEAMAN NOW VICE ADMIRAL —When Charles Welford Fox graduated from grade school in his native Baltimore in 1913 he enlisted in the Navy as an apprentice seaman. He rose through all the grades and last week was appointed Vice Admiral. Naval records show that he is the first apprentice to reach that active duty rank. Already distinguished in his calling, Vice Admiral Fox has given the bulk of his 39 years in the Navy to the administration of Naval supply in every phase—from storekeeping as an enlisted man to the highest administrative responsibilities.

In three years the apprentice rose to acting pay clerk and by 1919 he won his first commission as Ensign in the Supply Corps. Twenty-four years later he reached the rank of Rear Admiral. In 1934 he pioneered in Navy land transportation and led the first transcontinental truck train from San Diego, Calif., to Norfolk, Va. When the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor he was serving on the carrier Enterprise and received a Presidential Unit Citation. For his services during the war received the Legion of Merit and other citations. His new post is that of Chief of the Office of Naval Material. His official address is Harrisburg, Pa.

A total of $13,978,466 was shared by California's 58 counties.

Kuchel stated Nevada County received $59,954.17 as its share. Of this, $7,820 was earmarked for snow removal. Placer County got $94,138.37 with $7,890 for snow removal while Sierra County draws $34,177.42 with a snow removal total of $6,350.

The largest share in the apportionment went to Los Angeles County ($4,362,916). Alameda was next with $681,226 and San Francisco followed with $602,705. Alpine County received the smallest sum, $16,792.

Two Added to Bi-County Selective Service Board

Stanley H. Halls, Nevada City and Howard C. Bennetts, Grass Valley, have been appointed on Selective Service Board No. 16, bringing the personnel of the board to five instead of three members. The other members are William Durbrow ad J. J. Looser, Grass Valley, and Thomas Wesley Vilas of Downieville. The board serves Sierra and Nevada Counties.

"Talks Turkey" —Long Distance

Some people chuckled when Sonny Fisher rented a home recording machine to record the noise his flock of turkeys make.

"I sent the recording to a buyer for a super-market chain," Sonny said. "I told them 'My turkeys speak for themselves—listen to this record!' They not only took my birds, but bought the record!"

"Why did they want the record?" I asked him. "Very simple," he says. "They're going to play it over the loud speakers in their stores—and then an announcer on another record reminds the customers that turkeys are plentiful and a good buy."

From where I sit, it's not always smart to make fun of someone just because he does things a little differently. I think a glass of beer is the most refreshing beverage there is. You — or Sonny — may prefer something else. But who's to decide one's right and the other's wrong? Let's stay "on record" that everyone's entitled to his own tastes and opinion.

GOVERNOR EARL WARREN confers with "official greeters" on his first day in office as California chairman for the 1952 March of Dimes. Discussing the new iron lung coin collector with the governor are young Sacramento polio victims (left) Richard Premock, 9, and Johnny Sharp, 6. Coin collector will be used in the March of Dimes appeal, January 2 to January 31. As California chairman, Governor Warren will coordinate the work of campaign directors in counties and cities throughout the state.

WARREN WILL AGAIN ACTIVELY DIRECT MARCH OF DIMES IN '52

Appointment of Governor Earl Warren as California's 1952 March of Dimes chairman was announced recently by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

As state chairman, Governor Warren will coordinate the work of campaign directors in counties and cities throughout the state. A veteran March of Dimes volunteer Governor Warren has been active since the National Foundation was founded in 1938. He was state chairman through 1945-1949 and for the last two years has been honorary chairman.

"Governor Warren is assuming the March of Dimes leadership in California at the most critical time in the Foundation's history," declared O'Connor, "and I know he will, as in the past, provide the kind of leadership so desperately needed at this time. During the past few years, the nation has been hit by polio in tremendous force. The overwhelming burdens placed upon the March of Dimes in providing for patient care, has caused the National Foundation to go into debt for the last three years. In fact, the march of polio is outpacing the March of Dimes."

At Sacramento, Governor Warren expressed confidence that Californians will meet the challenge of increased polio. He pointed out that, because of the increased need, the usual two-week appeal will be doubled. The March of Dimes campaign will open January 2 instead of January 15 and continue through the rest of the month.

"The heavy number of cases, Governor Warren revealed, "has necessitated National Headquarters sending to California chapters so far this year over $832,000 in March of Dimes epidemic aid funds. As of October 6, there have been over 2125 new polio cases in this state—716 more than at this same time last year."

DONNER SURVIVOR'S SON DIES IN SOUTH AFTER EVENTFUL LIFE

The son of the youngest survivor of the Donner Party and himself a familiar figure in California's history passed away Tuesday in his sleep at Long Beach.

Stanley W. Houghton, 79, was the son of Eliza Donner Houghton, who was rescued from the famed expedition which was snowed in in the Truckee River canyon in the winter of 1846-47. Her father was George P. Donner, a leader of the ill-starred pioneer emigrant party. Both he and his wife perished in their cabin near Prosser Creek during the tragic winter.

Houghton's father was Sherman Houghton, who came around the Horn in 1847, picked up $18,000 in gold in 17 days near Sonora, ran a store there for years and a teamster business between Stockton and the gold fields of the Mother Lode.

The elder Houghton was the first clerk of the state senate, at 25 was mayor of San Jose and served in Congress from 1871 to 1875 and it was during this period that their son was born in the national capital. He represented the southern district of California which, in those days, included everything from San Francisco south.

Stanley Houghton as a young man traveled the west, worked in logging camps, went to sea and finally settled in Oro Grande, San Bernardino County, as manager of the Golden State Portland Cement Company.

Elected justice of the peace, he was credited with cleaning the bad men out of that desert town and won his chief renown for capturing the notorious outlaw, Heironymous Hartman, in 1908.

He had been retired for many years. His widow, Dove, and two daughters all survive in southern California.

TAHOE VICINITY UP, TRUCKEE LAGS IN SCOUT FUND DRIVE

The following information concerning the Boy Scout finance campaigns in the Tahoe-Truckee District was released by Jim Walker district finance chairman:

The campaign in the Lake Tahoe vicinity has progressed very well under the chairmanship of Clarence Beavers, with $499 being reported. In the Truckee campaign, a total of $139 has been reported according to Walker.

The money raised in the communities of the Tahoe-Truckee District is pooled with funds raised in the other three districts of the Tahoe Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America to reach a yearly budget. The amount collected in the Lake Tahoe vicinity exceeds any in previous years, while the amount in Truckee has thus far fallen short of previous years.

Walker reports that this shows a need for Truckee to do its equal share in supporting the Scouting program in this district by helping to raise the budget of the Tahoe Area Council.

Of each dollar invested in this program, 43 per cent is spent on direct field services by the two-man executive staff, Ray Ewan, Scout executive, and Del Raby, field Scout executive, to the 500 volunteer leaders of the 2½ counties, thus serving over 2,000 boys a year. Another large percentage, 22½, is spent on the camping and activities program in maintaining the Council Camp Pahatsi near Soda Springs and keeping a yearly calendar of events for the Scouts. The Council office service station and services of a full-time secretary are maintained by 23 per cent of each dollar, which includes the record keeping of all boys ad the record keeping of all boys and adults registered in the council. A small 10 per cent goes for administrative purposes, while the only money that leaves the council area is 1½ per cent that is sent to the national council for services to the executive staff.

Some Forest Fire Rules Are Still in Effect

Guerdon Ellis, forest supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest, has declared that, effective November 1, special fire restrictions imposed by federal regulation earlier in the year, are rescinded as they apply to Tahoe National Forest lands. Campfire permits are not now required before building campfires and smoking is no longer restricted to specific areas.

Special emphasis should be given to continued need for burning permits to dispose of debris and slash as required by state law. State and federal agencies will require debris burning permits until December 1.

Sierraviller Charges Companion with Theft

Zauno Virmola of Sierraville on Tuesday night secured a warrant for the arrest of Frank Oxley, also of Sierraville, on a charge of car theft.

Virmola told officers of the California Highway Patrol that he and Oxley came to Truckee Tuesday. He said he was eating in a local cafe when Oxley asked for the keys to the car to get some belongings. Later, when Virmola went to where he had left his car parked, he found it gone and it was later found wrecked and abandoned three miles north of Truckee

Movies, games and dancing will make up the first evening's agenda, with later sessions to be expanded into more specialized recreation.

the most talked-about girdles in the world

WARNER'S STA-UP-TOP never rolls over
always stays up

★ the only girdle that never rolls over . . . always stays up . . . lets you bend naturally below the band.
★ the only girdle that comfortably slims your waist as it trims your hips.
★ the only girdle with the easy-stretch waistband that always stays snug . . . never spreads.

It's wonderful the way Warner's* Sta-Up-Top* girdles trim your hips and whittle your waist as well. Wonderful the way that patented elastic waistband grows like a grin with every breath you take. Wonderful the way it inches you in . . . never pinches you in.

Choose your Sta-Up-Top from soft-knits or paneled-persuaders —from step-ins or panties—with 2- or 3-inch waistbands—nylon or not. Be sure it's 3-Way-Sized to fit you perfectly in length; hip size and control.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

HAVING LOST HIS MEMORY, TARZAN WAS IDENTIFIED AS MATO'S "BUSH SPIRIT"... AND SOON HE WAS ABLE TO ACT THE PART WHEN THE TWO WERE AMBUSHED BY PANTHER MEN!

MATO IMPALED ONE ATTACKER WITH HIS SPEAR, THEN WATCHED, AMAZED, THE WHITE MAN SEIZED THE FOREMOST PANTHER MAN BY THE LEG, JERKED HIM INTO THE AIR, AND SLAMMED HIM AGAINST THE OTHERS!

KNIFE DRAWN, "BUSH SPIRIT" POUNCED ON AND FELLED TWO SPRAWLING ENEMIES -- BUT THE THIRD ESCAPED!

"LET HIM GO. SEE THE FISHING EQUIPMENT IN THESE POUCHES? THEY LIVE BY A RIVER." MATO GRITTED HIS TEETH. "THEN WE MUST ROUSE MY PEOPLE, GO TO THAT RIVER AND WIPE THEM OUT!"

... LATER, IN THE KEMBA'S VILLAGE, "BUSH SPIRIT" STOOD SILENT BEFORE AWE-INSPIRED NATIVES, AS MATO PROUDLY ATTRIBUTED SUPERHUMAN SKILLS TO HIS "NAMESAKE," AND APPOINTED HIM THEIR LEADER AGAINST THE PANTHER MEN.
